Should you continue to harass you are hereby on notice that you are breaking the LAW.

Under the Biosecurity Act 2015 the vaccine/ mask/ QR tracking mandates are Unlawful.

In order to determine whether you are acting lawfully you need to ask yourself the following questions:

1. Are you an authorised Biosecurity officer?
2. Has a medical practitioner assessed an infectious risk status on a person?
3. Has Biosecurity Control Order specifying the reasons for your request/direction upon the person been provided?

If not, what is your lawful reason for failing to comply with the laws?

Please remember that you were ordered to follow these directions/requests from your employer which fails to protect you the officer/s from criminal civil liabilities.

S61 Biosecurity Control Order of the Biosecurity Act 2015 states that:

A human biosecurity control order that is enforced in relation to an individual must specify the Following:

- the grounds under which the order is imposed upon the individual.
- the listed human disease in relation to which the order is imposed on the individual.
- any signs or symptoms to be listed to the human listed disease order.
- the prescribed contact information provided by the individual must be accompanied with physical material evidence to validate claim.
- Each Biosecurity measure upon the individual must comply with the act. By providing an explanation why the individual must comply, and why these measures are required.

Under the law a person is presumed healthy until proven sick. Not the other way around.
